NAHB –Larry updated the latest from NAHB. Rent rates are climbing and inventory is tight on homes for sale. There is an increased demand for smaller homes as individuals look to down size. Jobs and wages are up and HUD is looking to make cuts in their funding.

Old Business:

It was decided that the Board would have representation at an upcoming Chamber of Commerce Friday Morning Wake Up meeting. It was suggested that the May 5th meeting should be attended.

Four responses have been received for the new Web Site update. They committee will pick two finalist and meet with them to determine who we should go with.

Other Business:

The Golf Tournament has been tentatively set for June 2nd at the Geneva Golf Course.

Rob gave an update of the City Council meeting he attended. The City is attempting to block wells from being drilled in the city limits and also to have everyone in the city that is using a well to be required to hook up to the city water system within five years.
